

Today saw the annual consignment of Limousin bulling heifers from Ms Hoggarth, Old Hall Farm, attracting buyers from far and wide. The consignment topped at £3,100 and averaged an impressive £2,922. Limousin heifers and calves from TA & J Temple, Ash Cragg, reached a top price of £4,500. More breeding cattle could easily have been sold at Broughton Mart to the advantage of vendors.

A wonderful show of ewes and lambs was forward, with Texel singles from TA & J Temple, Ash Cragg, topping at £128 per life. Mule singles from V & S Inman, High Grounds, topped at £108 per life. Cheviots sold to £116 per life for broken-mouth singles from Ms Kirkby & Longworth, Sella Farm. Texel x Herdwicks topped at £76 from GJ & HB Fitzwilliam, Moor House, while Swaledales reached £74, also from V & S Inman, High Grounds. Herdwicks sold to a high of £74 per life from R & A Ellwood, Undercragg.

Many more ewes and lambs could have been sold to the advantage of vendors. The next sale of ewes and lambs, along with store cattle, will take place on Tuesday 2nd June at Broughton Mart.

Entries should be advised to the market office or a member of the sales team by 10am on Tuesday 26th May.
