

The annual April Fair attracted a keen ringside of both local and travelled buyers, ensuring trade was strong and well in line with other local markets.

A marvellous show was put before our judge Miss Maisie Beresford, after much time and deliberation she awarded the championship rosette to the first prize bullock from NA&J Temple, Ash Crag, this animal later went on and sold for £2180.00 to the judge.

Reserve honours also went to the same good farming home for a British Blue Heifer making £1900.00.

Broughton was packed to the rafters with the sale topping at £2380.00 for a Limousin Steer from SW&A Hoggarth, Far Kiln Bank, who sold others to £2270. Aberdeen Angus Bullocks sold to £2260 from JD Southward, Becksde. Heifers sold to a top of £2240 for a British Blue from D&SA Wilson, Parsonage Farm.

The next sale of Store cattle will be on Tuesday 19th May.
